

Vibrant Success Manifesto

I am willing to own my exquisite success. I am powerful and able, successful beyond measure, whole and complete. I have everything I need. The Universe supports me all the time. My body is filled with energy and vitality, and I am light and buoyant. Natural well-being flows through me. All I desire is in reach. I am powerful, attractive, and wealthy. Abundance is my birthright. I am sought after and in demand. This I manifest now.

I forgive myself, and forgive all who have hurt me. Today I begin life anew. Joy and love flow from me as from a fountain. Love is in my heart as I meet each situation, and each person. I move out into the world with love. I can succeed with love and I am discovering this now.

I am persistent and tenacious, and the will to succeed supports me totally. I persist and I succeed. I take action, and I succeed. Barriers become my education, as I experience obstacles and opportunities which lie on my path to success. I'm unstoppable and unflappable.

I am brilliant and confident. The awesome power of the Universe manifests through me now. My actions are decisive, as I walk in the power and affirmation of life. I am one with the Universe, and I have more than I need. I am filled with gratitude. And so it is.
